Sir:

Applicant respectfully petitions for the issuance of duplicate original Letters Patent for the above-identified matter for the reasons stated below.

The above-identified patent issued on April 5, 2005. When it was discovered that the original Letters Patent was never received in our office, a telephone call was made to the Patent Office to determine if the original Letters Patent had been mailed. To date, the Letters Patent has not been received in our office. The undersigned has searched the file jacket for this application/patent and was unable to locate the original Letters Patent. The undersigned also searched our firm's docketing records where an entry would have been made had the original Letters
